

Pinocchio

Geppetto was lonely. He made a wooden puppet. He named the puppet Pinocchio.

One night, the blue fairy came to Pinocchio. She made him come alive but he was still a puppet. To become a real boy he must do good things in life

The next morning, Pinocchio could walk and talk. Geppetto was so happy.

Gepetto sent Pinocchio to school. Pinocchio met two tricksters, a cat and a fox.

The two scoundrels took Pinocchio to a puppet show and sold him to the puppet master. The puppet master locked Pinocchio in a room.

The blue fairy found Pinocchio and he told her a lie. His nose grew long. He said he was sorry and his nose shrunk. The blue fairy helped him escape.

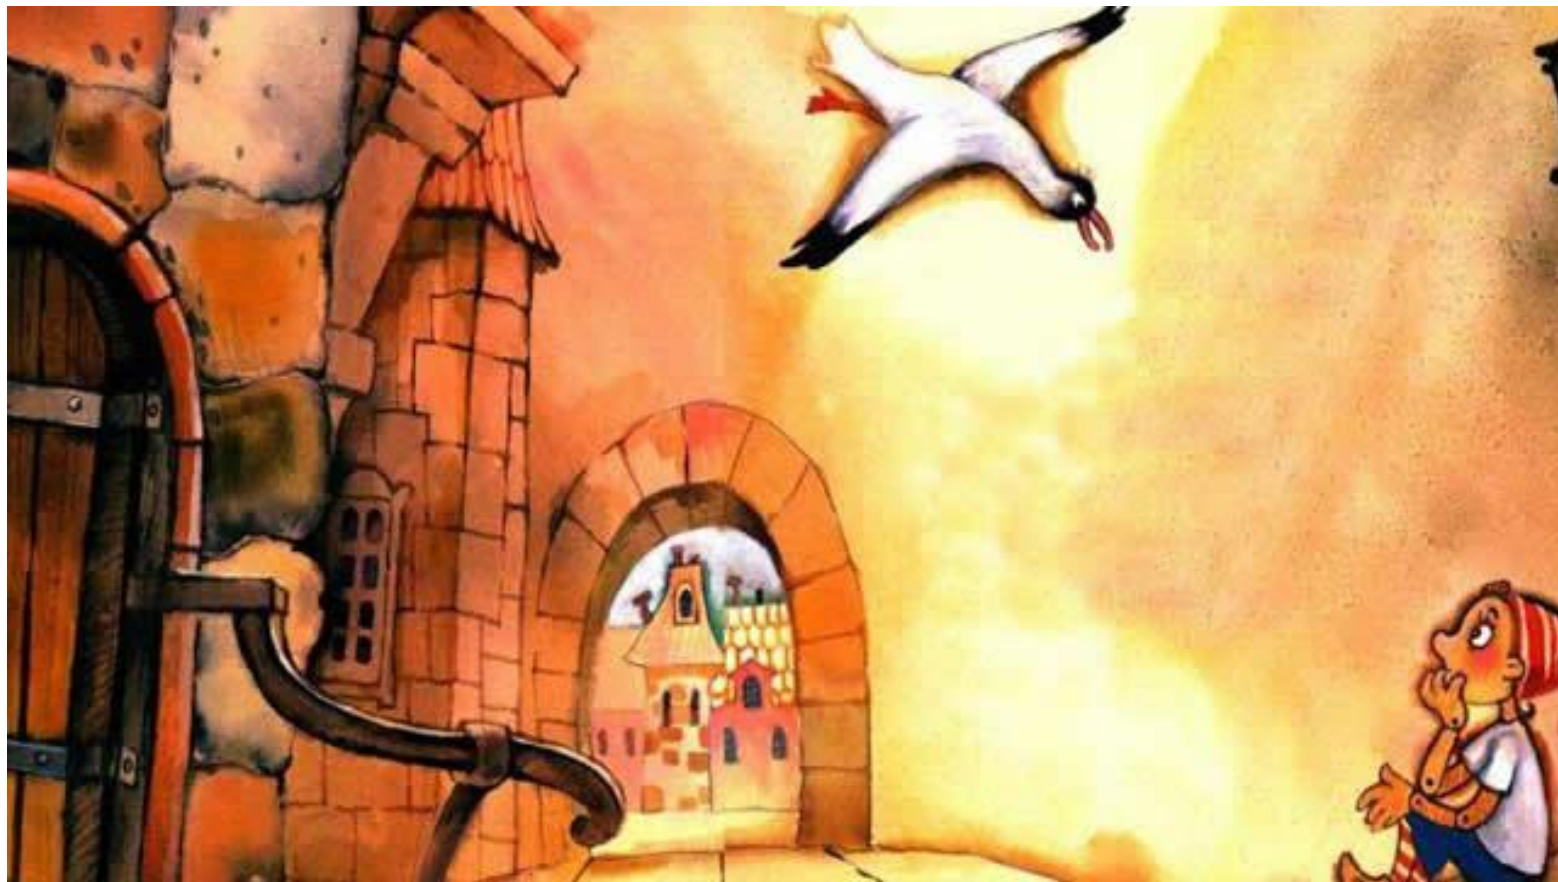

On the way home, Pinocchio saw children going to Toyland. He followed them

In Toyland, children never studied. They played all day and became stupid donkeys. Pinocchio became a stupid donkey too.

The blue fairy helped Pinocchio again and he ran home but Geppetto was gone.
He was searching for Pinocchio.

A sea gull told Pinocchio a big whale had swallowed Geppetto.

Pinocchio found the big whale and was swallowed too.

Then, Pinocchio found Geppetto and made a fire.

Both escaped.

But Geppetto was sick. He caught a cold being in the whale's belly. Pinocchio took care of Geppetto and Geppetto was happy.

One day, the blue fairy came. She changed Pinocchio into a real boy because he helped Geppetto get better. Geppetto and Pinocchio lived happily ever after.
